

Veronica Moore @ 716-444-3017
Website: www.ctwyouth.org

Who we are:

- Created to Win Youth (CTW), is a non-profit youth organization created to inspire youth to develop into morally responsible and influential leaders in their homes, schools, communities and the world.

What we do and who we serve:

- CTW strives to mentor youth who have a passion toward leadership.
- Promote leadership skills through teachings on issues that concern their future.
- Impart Godly vision and purpose into the lives of youth.
- Allow youth to take part and responsibility in decision making issues within CTW.
- CTW serves youth between the ages of 12-19 years old (WRAP AROUND families are welcome).
- CTW serves youth from all local areas, cultural backgrounds, faiths, and races.

When we meet:

Date: Every Friday night
Time: 7 -9pm
Location: Gateway-Longview Family Resource Center
347 E. Ferry Street
Buffalo, NY 14215

Youth Curriculum June—August:

- YOUTH FINANCIAL AWARENESS & RESPONSIBILITY PROGRAM
- June 4 & 11—Mindset on Success! (How do you value money?, etc.)
- June 18 & 25—The employment process (Resume writing, Interviewing techniques, etc.)
- July 2 & 9—Understanding your pay check (Taxes, OT, Year-to-date, etc) and Budgeting
- July 16 & 23—Understanding credit cards (Types of credit, APR's, Finance fees, etc.)
- August 6 & 13—Understanding FICO/Credit scores (How credit affects interest rates, etc.)
- August 20 & 27—Understanding Amortizations (Borrowing and repaying amounts, etc.)

Teachings are developed by evidence-based concepts, licensed professional training, statistical research, biblical principals and life experiences. Lively, interactive demonstrations and role playing are used to enhance student's knowledge.

Total cost to attend CTW Program for 3 months: $35 per youth.
(Cost will cover refreshments)

To register, please contact Alisha Baggiano at 716-207-9829